"ALL AMERICAN BASEBALL ACADEMY" to: Sam Wernick 404 - O2 Dresher Road, Horsham, PA 19044

Every year between 1500 and 2000 baseball players train in our programs or get private instruction in our facility. There's a reason why our programs are completely sold out each year. Our programs offer the highest quality instruction with the most qualified baseball instructors, in a state-of-the art indoor facility. Our staff is comprised of educators, major league coaches and scouts, college and high school coaches and professional players. We know how to teach the fundamentals of the game. We understand that champions are made in the off-season. Our comprehensive programs are designed to develop players according to the time table which starts November 1st, after fall baseball is over through the beginning of March, when high school players try out for their school teams. Baseball is a 5 tool sport. Exceptional 5 tool players are rare. You have to be able to: hit for power, hit for average, develop great arm strength, defensively field your position and run for speed. If you master 4 of these tools you can have a great career. Think about the greatest players of the game and ask yourself which tools are most important. Some players mastered just 3 of these tools and they are in the Hall of Fame. Some truths are indisputable. If you hit homeruns but run slowly you can still be a designated hitter. If you run fast but you can't hit, field or throw, you will likely have no shot at a career in baseball. Major league teams do not give contracts to sprinters just to steal bases. The Academy offers numerous programs that focus on all 5 tools. You can focus on all 5 or just 1. If you want to develop your hitting or pitching skills, we offer programs all year round.

A WORD ABOUT SPEED AND QUICKNESS

Our seasonal programs and year round Academy program have always incorporated speed and quickness training. Thanks to Duane Carlisle, (Former speed coach for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and current head speed coach for the San Francisco Forty-Niners) who developed the Academy speed and quickness training and his company, LightningFast Training Systems, the sports community has figured out that it's probably a good idea to incorporate speed and quickness training into their programs. Speed and quickness centers are popping up everywhere to train athletes how to run fast. Some even claim to be baseball experts. Our speed and quickness training was developed for baseball players. Each sport requires a different training. Rest assured, when you get your baseball training at a facility that specializes in baseball with baseball specific speed and quickness training you will be miles ahead of a speed and quickness center that also does some baseball. Remember, you can't steal first base! The Academy has used state of the art electronic timing equipment since 1998. That's about the same time your local speed and quickness expert was 12 years old. Whether you want to make your school team, your community team, a select travel team, or venture into showcasing and college recruiting, the Academy has something for you. The Academy averages 17 to 19 players each year, who train with us and go on to receive college baseball scholarships, grants, get drafted or sign professional contracts. We also educate players and parents about the college recruiting process. Finding the right match is hard work and it's wise to get it right on the first shot. Ask us how we can advise you through the entire process

Every program listed below offers a full range of fundamentals. Each skill will be covered in the clinics and will be broken down into separate drills. When the drills have been mastered we will put everything back together. Your game is less likely to break down when you understand how to fix the problems yourself. We teach slump busting drills that you can use to correct flaws. This is a process that works for major league, college, high school and players of all ages. Every player who participates in our programs is constantly evaluated for progress and coachability and may be considered to participate in our more advanced "by invitation only" programs. Please register early as all programs sell out every year!

If you don't see a program that fits your needs we always offer flexible hours for Private Instruction. To schedule hitting lessons, please call Coach Bob Vivian at 215-674-0904. To schedule pitching instruction, please call Coach O'hara at 267-334-1111.
